Bill is a Principal with Pfeiffer, leading the firm’s arts practice. His experience ranges from the design and implementation of fine and performing arts buildings on campuses as well as major new civic arts centers and community cultural centers. Bill’s work demonstrates a tremendous understanding and appreciation of the design and technical aspects of design, production, teaching/learning, rehearsal and performance spaces and he strives to achieve a careful balance between a client’s programmatic needs, aesthetic desires, standards of quality, and budgets. Bill lectures frequently on the arts and has served as a juror on a number of national committees, assessing the design of performing arts centers across the country.
