

Ashley Jian Thomson is Communications Specialist & Fine Arts Ambassador with the University of Utah's College of Fine Arts. She was recently appointed Guest Choreographer by the School of Dance and created "Elemental Alignment," a dance-inspired, fantasy space opera. Ashley is now working on producing a short documentary of the behind-the-scenes research process to be distributed locally and internationally.

Ashley graduated from the University of Utah with a Ballet, B.F.A. and a Strategic Communications, B.S. She has taught for IBSI Korea and Ballet West Academy and holds certifications in ABT® National Training Curriculum, Progressing Ballet Technique, and University of Minnesota's UX/UI Design Program.